KIND OF GAME THE FANS LIKE

Plenty of Hits, Base Running and Fielding.

AND THE HOME TEAM WON

BOTH PITCHERS BATTED HARD -SCORE WAS 14 TO 8.

Two strong men worked for several hours last night trying to pry apart the jaws of a citizen here. The citizen was the one who, after the game on Tuesday, made the remark that our team had no license to carry bats for the lads from Last Chance guich. We were Frary juggled it long enough to make Cook safe. The summary: won yesterday. The game was twice as good as the one played Tuesday by the record, for while on Tuesday the Nagel, c. f. score was only 7 to 4, yesterday it was Howlett. 3b. Howlett. 3b. Thompson, I

Persons who chanced to drop down ead at the crack of the gun and keep lead at the crack of the gun and keep a good, safe distance ahead until the last of the fireworks blew up. There was a large gob of hitting in the game and a trifling bunch of errata, our heroes getting the best of it, so that the game was entirely satisfactory.

There might arise someone who would say he did not like that kind of a game. If so, listen to him patiently and then fit your boot to him very thoroughly, since that kind of a man has no license to talk about baseball. It is a hitting bee that makes baseball stoyalf. r.f. nat kind of Cook. 3b. ... Dayls. 1b. ... Tillher. c. f. Shea. c. ... Stoyall, r. f. ... Miller, p. ... ... Stoyall, r. f. ... Miller, p. ... ... Big Week Day Crowd.

The crowd yesterday was big for a week day, very high class so far as quality goes, and very much appreciated the great stick work of our team. Cook was notably to the plus with the wand, while Stovall, apparently quite convalescent from his spell of Tuesday, landed on them as in former days. "Tacks" was good egain and addeed much to the wad of esteem we have sat apart for him. Little Fisher was in much better fielding shape then on Tuesday and did some good work on the bases, saying to himself as he skipped chestily across the rubber with his third run of the day: "The Additional Property of the Spokane, S; Tacoma, 7.

Miller, who shied the discus for us, was a trifle uncontrollable at times, but his team was hitting so that his scalp was never in danger. Puttman, a Hindoo rajah from Posen, with the good fin on the wrong side, jostled them over for the mob from Sleepy Hollow. At times he was very good, but on other occasions he was unable.

He was not so all-fired mean to us as Jamesy Wiggs, the runt, was the day before. Puttman, however, gave out the impression that he is something of a hitting pitcher, and landed on Mr. Miller's larbeard and starboard tacks with considerable unction and frequency.

The gentlemen with the inflammatory suits and annular hostery managed to achieve quite a bunch of errors. There are two reasons, one of which was apparent to the eyewitnesses of the game, while the other is made public by Mr. Slats Davis, the Hungarlan dancer who carols so lustily around island No. 1 for us. What he was the state of the control of t the spectators figured out was that the Helena boys had an unusual quantity of hard chances because of the swatting proclivities of our hired help, who ting proclivities of our hired help, who hit it out with discouraging regularity. Mr. Davis recruests us to other reacon for Helena's errors as follows:

After the game Tuesday Billy Heywood, the local philanthropist, called at the hotel to take the Helena boys by the hand and bid them welcome to cur fair city. Mr. Heywood thoughtfully and painstakingly explained to the strangers the nomenclature of Salt Lake tam. and have many fan friends in this city who are confident they can make good in the present fast company. Thompson will do the twirling for Helena.

By winning yesterday's game Salt Lake tumps from last place to sixth in the perfect of the process o the strangers the nomenclature of Salt Lake's streets, with the result that the boys had not got just clear in their heads until late last night. (Note.—Mr. Davis requests us to announce that his humor is wholly extemporaneous and bubbling. He prepares nothing in advance and generally does not mean half what he says. Some of his jokes are inherited, he says, while others are adapted from Omar Khayyam.)

The same teams will clutch again this afternoon at 4 o'clock and it will be worth going to see. There can be no question but that we are getting a better grade of baseball than we have ever had here before, especially in the way of hitting, and hitting is what makes a game worth seeing.

Tacoma, July 8.—Despite the fact that it took eleven innings to locate the winner, today's game was an exhibition that a bunch of schoolboys on a town lot might well be ashamed of.
